Since last valuation at the end of March 2024, the Reference Portfolio Advisor decided to continue to participate for another month on the two Reference Debt Security Component issued by AQ Capital S.A., which had a former maturity date of 30th April 2024. The new maturity date is now 31st May 2024. All other conditions described in the separate document 1.9 of this additional Reference Debt Security Components are remaining unchanged. The value of the Reference Fund Components and Reference Debt Security Components comprised approx. 97% of the Reference Portfolio Value on the end of April 2024. Except for a mandatory Notional Cash Position buffer, the Reference Portfolio is considered fully invested and has achieved its goal of keeping the Notional Cash Position below 5% of the Reference Portfolio Value.
